2. i. JOHN² (5717) was born circa 1750 at County Antrim, Northern Ireland. He married Sarah Wiley (5718) in 1786. He died on Sep 15, 1818 at Amwell Township, Pennsylvania.

Generation Two

2. JOHN² HUGHES (5717) (Barnabus¹) was born circa 1750 at County Antrim, Northern Ireland. He married Sarah Wiley (5718) in 1786. He died on Sep 15, 1818 at Amwell Township, Pennsylvania.

He was a Hatter. Owned a store in Amwell. THE HUGHES FAMILY'S SETTLEMENT IN WASHINGTON COUNTY:

John Hughes was of Irish ancestry and a native of New Jersey, and in his youth removed to Carlisle, where he entered the Continental army under Capt. Hendricks. The company in which he was placed was formed with eight others into a battalion of riflemen in July, 1775, and placed in command of Col. William Thompson. A New York paper of that date says that between the 28th of July and August 2nd, "The riflemen under command of Capts. Smith, Lowdon, Doudel, Chambers, Nagel, Miller, and Hendricks passed through New Windsor (a few miles north of West Point), in the New York government, on their way to Boston." They arrived in camp at Cambridge Aug. 13, 1775. In the month of September of that year Capt. Hendrick's company, with others, left for Canada under the command of Col. Arnold, and were in the attack upon Quebec. Mr. Hughes rose from the ranks to a Captaincy. He remained with the army during the war, and was present at the battles of Princeton, Brandywine, Germantown, and Monmouth.

After the war he removed to Washington County with Timothy Ryan. Together they purchased warrants for several large tracts of land on Fish Creek, now in Greene County, to which they received patents in August, 1785, and in 1786 he purchased Ryan's interest. John Hughes purchased a warrant for a tract of land on the 18th of October, 1784, of Albert Simonson on what is known as Hughes' branch of Ten-Mile Creek, adjoining James Tucker. This was surveyed to him as "Green Spring" on the 2nd of March, 1785.

An account book of his, now in possession of his great-grandson, Workman Hughes, recorder of Washington County, extends from Oct. 13, 1784, to 1816. In 1784 and 1785 the names of Demas Lindley, Michael Tygart, Van Swearingen, Esq., Daniel Harris, John Gregg, James Lloyd, Dr. David Holmes, John Dodd, Patrick Allison, Capt. Samuel Brady, William Bryson, William Jarret, Maj. Carcraft, George Biggs, William Meetkirk, George Fox, David Long, John Brownlee, William Forbes, William Markland, James Tucker, Mr. Douglas, James Clemens, David Parkison, Alexander Beer, James Castor, Francis Biddle, Daniel Bogle, Henry McClelland, Daniel Leet, and William Leet are found entered. The most of the names here given were residents on or near the waters of Ten-Mile Creek. There is a space of nine years before the account is again taken up, and it is probable that the store was kept at Ten-Mile during that time.

In 1802, Mr. Hughes purchased a lot adjoining No. 18 on Main Street, in Washington, of Joseph Day, and in 1809 two lots on Maiden Street of Archibald Kerr. He was a hatter by trade, and opened a store in Washington. The accounts were kept in the book commencing in 1784. In later years he returned to Amwell township, where he died Sept. 5, 1818, in the sixty-eighth year of his age. He was buried with military honors by the companies of Capt. McCluney, of Washington, and Capt. Lacock's rifle rangers, of Amwell township

Of his children, Mary Ann married Gabriel Blakeney, of Washington. She died, leaving no children. James married Mary, daughter of Gen. Abner Lacock, and settled in Amwell township. They left five children, of whom Sally (Mrs. Daniel Carter) resides at Monongahela City. Susan became the wife of Jesse Carter, and settled in Greene County. Margaret married Samuel Andrews, and afterwards John Horn. Samuel L. Hughes settled in Amwell township. He was elected a justice of the peace April 14, 1839, and held the position for thirty-two years. His death occurred Nov. 29, 1880, at the age of seventy years. Four sons reside in Washington, and one son, John, is in South America. Samuel, a son of John Hughes, married Mary, the daughter of Hugh Workman, and settled in Washington. He was a carpenter, and followed his trade. His descendants are living here still. John Hughes, J. John Hughes came to Carlisle, Pa in 1770. He entered the Continental Army under Captain Hendricks in 1775. This Company, with 8 other Companies, formed a battallion of riflemen in 1775 and was placed in command of Colonel William Thompson. They encamped at Cambridge, Massachussets in August 1775. In September 1775, Capt. Hendricks' company, with others, left for Canada under the command of Colonel Benedict Arnold and took part in the attack on Quebec. After that expedition John Hughes was promoted to Captain. He remained with the Army for the duration of the war, being present at the battles of Princeton, Brandywine, Germantown, and Monmouth.

After the war, he and his family moved to Wasington County, Pennsylvania. In 1784, he purchased a tract of land on what is known as Hughes' Branch of Ten Mile Creek. In 1802, he purchased lot on Main St. in Washington Pennsylvania, and later, 2 lots on Maiden Street. He was a carpenter. For 14 years was Captain of the company guarding the surveying Corps. After retiring, he settled in Amwell Township in Pennsylvania.
